

UNWANTED HOUSEMATES / BOOK: 18 MINUTES / MARKET SUMMARY: DELAWARE / DESTINATION PROFILE: DUBAI

MOBILITY™

Magazine of Worldwide ERC®

August 2016

CHOOSING A VAN LINE PARTNER 6 THINGS TO CONSIDER

MILLENNIALS:

SERVING TOMORROW'S CUSTOMERS

CHEAPER, BETTER, FASTER:

PICK ... 3!

VETERANS AND CORPORATE HOUSING

A GOOD CAREER MATCH

Ryan Watroba

WATROBA NAMED TO ALBANY'S 40 UNDER 40

Ryan Watroba, CRP, vice president, relocation and business development, with Coldwell Banker Prime Properties, was recognized as one of the "40 Under 40" by the Albany Business Review. Selected by an advisory committee of business leaders, he was one of more than 500 nominees to be considered for the award, which recognizes up-and-coming executives, innovators, and thought leaders who will shape the future of Albany, New York.

Tim Rambo

LEXICON RELOCATION HIRES TIM RAMBO

Tim Rambo, CRP, has joined Lexicon Relocation's global business development and marketing team as director, business development. Based in Arizona, he will focus on continued growth in the western U.S.

Rambo has 10 years of industry experience, working in the relocation management and mortgage sectors. He is a strategic sales professional with a proven track record of achieving and exceeding goals. Rambo will be responsible for expanding Lexicon's client base by building and leading Lexicon's industry presence through strategic sales development initiatives.

"Tim is an exciting addition to Lexicon's global business development team," says Daniel Keating, SCR, GMS, Lexicon senior vice president, global business development and marketing, to whom Rambo will report directly. "Through active prospecting, strong relationship management, and the development of client-oriented solutions, Tim has produced and will produce win-win results."

Margie Malloy

MARGIE MALLOY IS NOMINATED FOR LEADERSHIP AWARD

Interstate Moving | Relocation | Logistics' executive vice president of administration, Margie Malloy, has been nominated for the Sister Eymard Gallagher Award by the 2016 Human Resources Leadership Awards (HRLA) of Greater Washington. The award honors human resources professionals for their leadership, dedication, and engagement of employees in giving back to the community through service to others.

George Herriage

"Serving our community is a huge part of our company culture," says Arthur E. "Bud" Morrisette IV, Interstate's CEO. "It boosts employee morale, it helps attract and retain passionate employees, and it encourages the development of leadership skills. Plus, it lets the region know that we are thankful for its continued loyalty."

Malloy has executive oversight of the company's CHEER committee (Charity, Health, Environment, Events, and Recreation). Last year the committee and company supported more than 75 nonprofit organizations.

GEORGE HERRIAGE NAMED PRESIDENT OF ALLEGIANCE

George Herriage, SCR, SGMS, has been named president of Allegiance Government Relocation, a provider of mobility solutions to the government sector and a wholly owned affiliate of Weichert Workforce Mobility. Herriage will have responsibility for all company operations. Working out of Allegiance's headquarters in the Washington, D.C., area, Herriage will report to Dave Bencivengo, GMS, president of Weichert Workforce Mobility.

Herriage brings a broad range of experience to the role. Since 1985 he has held leadership positions in practically every facet of workforce mobility in both the corporate and government sectors. Prior to joining Allegiance, Herriage spent 15 years at Capital Relocation Service in executive capacities, most recently chief operating officer, responsible for the company's corporate and government operations. Herriage has also worked in real estate and founded his own business consulting practice, OPT Global Solutions.

"George is a proven veteran of the workforce mobility industry, and his deep insight into both the public and private sectors will help strengthen the Allegiance value proposition and make us a trusted partner to the GSA and agency clients," says Bencivengo. M