A Well-Staged House is a Sold House.

Tips for Staging Your House for Sale:

(1) Sign Up for Interstate Moving & Storage's CLUTTER BUSTER™ Package. Your keepsakes will be kept safe with Interstate, an experienced mover who will give your belongings the VIP treatment they deserve. Simply call 800.220.MOVE to get started.

(2) Declutter and Depersonalize. Your house is the star here – not your personal items or junk. Give buyers the ability to see themselves in your house. Remove photographs and family heirlooms. And declutter:

- If you haven't used something in over a year, pack it up! If you haven't used something in over three years, donate or throw it away.
- Remove all books, pick up knickknacks and clear counters.
- Choose a couple of favorite toys that can be kept in a toy box, chest, or large decorative basket. Store the rest!
- This whole process will give you a head start on packing – so just keep telling yourself that you are ahead of the game.

(3) Rearrange Bedroom Closets and Kitchen Cabinets. It's time to put on your organization hat and get to work! Buyers love to snoop behind closed doors. Send a message that you take great care of your house with well-organized closets and cabinets.

(4) Remove/Replace Favorite Items. Whether you will be taking window coverings, built-in appliances, or a favorite chandelier, remove them now. A buyer will never want what he or she can't see! Pack those items and replace if necessary.

(5) Make Minor Repairs and Clean Clean Clean! Repair holes and cracks in the wall, replace leaky faucets, replace burned-out light bulbs, get rid of moldy grout, and clean every inch of your house! Consider replacing vibrant colors with more neutral ones.

(6) Curb Appeal Counts. First impressions are everything – make sure your house looks as good on the outside as it does inside. Clear the sidewalks, mow the lawn, paint faded trim and fences, plant flowers, and trim your bushes.
